Submission

Full-research, research-in-progress, teaching cases and proposals for panels and tutorials to Conf-IRM 2017 are to be submitted via <http://confirm2017.fen.uchile.cl/>. All submissions will be double-blind peer-reviewed and handled by the track chairs.

Track coverage

The goal of this Conf-IRM track is to encourage ICT scholars in Latin America and the Caribbean to conduct research relevant to their contexts. The track promotes design, use, management and impact of sustainable ICTs for economic and social development. We are especially interested in data-driven ICT applications involving organizational and inter-organizational contexts, local, regional, national and transnational organizations, government, healthcare, education initiatives, and ICT innovations for sustainability and in papers that study these and other topics in countries in these regions and explain their findings based on the peculiarities of their contexts or comparing results with other contexts or countries.

Recommended topics Topics of interest may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- ICT for sustainable development
- Information security for privacy issues
- ICT for regional and global integration
- Data-driven decision making
- Public policies for ICT development
- Data in the cloud and big data applications
- ICT in government, healthcare, education, agriculture, and tourism
- ICT in micro-enterprises, SMEs and MSMEs
- Agile technologies for building digital enterprises
- Strategic IT management and governance
- Analytics and digital enterprises
- Impacts of ICT on people, organizations and society
- ICT in an inter-organizational context

Submission Types and Guidelines

Full length submissions

Submissions must be no more than 12 pages, including references, appendices and title page. All submissions must follow the submission template specifications. Submissions must be original and previously unpublished, conceptual or empirical research manuscripts. Papers that are highly rated by the reviewers will be considered for publications in selected journals. The paper that best represents, in terms of quality and suitability, the theme and ideals of the conference will be awarded the "Best Paper Award" during the conference.

Research-in-progress submissions

Submissions must be no more than 7 pages. All research-in-progress submissions will be published in the proceedings as short papers.

Teaching cases

We welcome submissions of teaching cases. The cases should be based on real situations and targeted at specific learning objectives. Cases should be no more than 12 pages and must be accompanied by instructor teaching notes (not included in the 12 pages). The teaching notes will not be published.

Workshop, panel and tutorial submissions

Submissions must be no more than 3 pages. Proposals should include the objectives, topics to be covered and the full details of all presenters. Method of presentation is at the submitter's discretion; however, the submitter has the responsibility for providing his/her own panel members. All accepted proposals will appear in the conference proceedings.

Important announcements

- The number of submissions by an author (including joint authorship) is strictly limited to a maximum of two.
- Authors of accepted papers (at least one person per submission) and all panel members and tutorial presenters MUST register AND attend the conference.
- Submissions of ALL TYPES must be received by the above deadlines.
- While the primary language of the conferences is English, papers in French will also be accepted. The ICT in Latin America and the Caribbean, and the ICT initiatives in the African context tracks will accept papers in French, Portuguese and Spanish, as well as English.
- Accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings in their entirety upon payment of registration fees. Papers accepted and presented at the conference will also be placed in the AIS e-Library. Papers not presented at the conference, for any reason, will not be included in the AIS e-Library.
